

XM is a service that I pay for not free like AM and FM where I am at the mercy of the local broadcaster to report traffic a few times an hour. The FCC granted the frequencies for Satellite radio knowing it was a subscription service, so programming content should not even be an issue.